Reading the room, the pulse of the crowd, Jená's flow of music is known to get the people moving. Born in Little Rock, Arkansas, Jená started playing the drums at the age of 5, which ignited her passion for music. Jená's dedication to her high school band afforded her an opportunity to play with the World Famed Tiger Marching Band while attending college at Grambling State University. Her ability to unite worlds, with a range of genres, has contributed to her style of eclecticism. Throughout the years, she's crafted her talents and developed a great ear for music. DJing for countless events, Jená has also been the opening DJ for Grammy Award nominee, Marsha Ambrosius "Nyla Tour" and The Breakfast Club co-host Angela Yee's "Lip Service Live Show". Jená has also worked with social media influencers such as, Supa Cent and NotKarltonBanks. Jená "DJ Rosé Red" enjoys being able to create the mood for the atmosphere. While working high school dances, parties, corporate events, and weddings, Jená's number one focus as a DJ is to always make sure the crowd is having a great time!
